

CPYRGHT

FOIAb3b

2 Expelled Tourists To Fly Home Today

Zurich, Switzerland, Oct. 19 (AP)—

Two American tourists expelled from the Soviet Union went sight-seeing and watch-buying today in this quiet lakeside town to pass the time until a Swiss Air Flight tomorrow takes them to New York.

Mark I. Kaminsky, 24, and Harvey C. Bennett, 26, also read newspaper accounts of their news conference in Vienna. They reached there yesterday from the Soviet Union, then came here last night.

Kaminsky was accused of espionage by the Russians, though he insisted he was just gathering material for a book on Soviet war preparations while touring Russia.